Role of an Altar Server

An altar server undertakes a very important, public role within the parish community. As an altar Server, you will:

- assist the priest during liturgical celebrations and join with the congregation in prayer;
- prepare, maintain, and properly store the items needed for the liturgical celebration;
- exercise your liturgical responsibilities in a dignified manner.

Signed Agreement

As an Altar Server, I pledge to the best of my ability:

- 1) to show up for the liturgical celebrations to which I am assigned;
- 2) to participate fully in the liturgical celebrations which I attend;
- 3) to work cooperatively with others in carrying out my duties; and,
- 4) to live my life in accord with the Gospel and in imitation of Jesus Christ.

Altar Server's Signature

I have discussed the above responsibilities with my child, and I agree to allow my child to be an Altar Server for St. Bonaventure Parish. I pledge, to the best of my ability, to help my child fulfill his or her obligations as an Altar Server and to help my child grow in love of God and neighbor.
